

Sociology 3101

Frederick D. Weil
Stubbs 17C
578-1140Sociological TheoryCourse Description:

An examination of important founders of sociological theory: Herbert Spencer, Karl Marx, Max Weber, Emile Durkheim, WEB Du Bois, several early women sociologists, Georg Simmel, and George Herbert Mead. We will concentrate on their substantive analyses regarding the emergence of the modern world: the growth of industrialism, post-industrialism, and capitalism, the emergence of democracy and the modern nation state, and the new forms of social relations and value systems under these conditions. Our approach will be historical and comparative, relating the theories to concrete developments rather than only the history of social thought or philosophy. Certain methodological issues will also be discussed regarding theory construction and the nature of a sociological account.

LSU Description:

SOCL 3101 Sociological Theory (3). Prereq.: SOCL 2001 or equivalent. Open to sociology majors; open to others with permission of instructor. Dominant theorists and schools of thought in sociology.

Required Reading

- Primary text: George Ritzer and Jeffrey Stepnisky, Classical Sociological Theory, Eighth Edition, 2020, SAGE Publications, ISBN: 9781544354828
- Secondary text: Lewis A. Coser, Masters of Sociological Thought, Ideas in Historical and Social Context, Second Edition (Long Grove, IL, 1977) ISBN 978-1-57766-307-2 or 1-57766-307-1.
- Suggested: Randall Collins, Four Sociological Traditions, Rev edition (Oxford University Press, 1994), ISBN 9780195082081 or 978-0195082081.

Course Requirements:

Class readings, knowledge of lectures, and 9 quizzes. You will be responsible for all readings and assigned materials on the course web site, <http://www.rickweil.com/s3101/>, including any updates. Grades will be based on the quizzes, as outlined below. There may also be opportunities for extra credit work, which will be announced by email.

Updates to the syllabus and/or scheduling information will be posted on the class website:

<http://www.rickweil.com/s3101/>. Students are responsible for staying informed of that information. Lecture notes and other helpful materials are available on the class website.

Normal university-approved excuses will be accepted, work can be made up, and the instructor is happy to help students understand material they missed. Any disability accommodations will be handled according to guidelines established by the Office of Disabilities. In addition to the formal disability notifications, the instructor and the Graduate Assistant can help work with you according to your needs. If you miss a class, lecture notes and recorded lectures will be available on the class website, you can come to office hours, and you can request a meeting with the instructor or the Graduate Assistant.

In the spring semester of 2022, Covid-19 remains a major factor in our lives. The instructor will do everything possible to maintain a safe learning environment. If you have needs or concerns due to Covid-19, do not hesitate to contact the instructor or the Graduate Assistant, who will work with you to help you safely complete the work of the class.

Scheduled office hours will be posted on the class webpage or the class Moodle page. The instructor and the Graduate Assistant will each hold office hours. If you want to speak with the instructor or the Graduate Assistant and can't meet during scheduled office hours, email and we will find a time to meet.

Grade Weights:

There will be a quiz for each theorist, weighted by the number of days we spend on them.

Standard LSU Statements

(see <https://www.lsu.edu/academicaffairs/resources/faculty/syllabus.php>)

Expectations

LSU's general policy states that for each credit hour, you (the student) should plan to spend at least two hours working on course related activities outside of class. Since this course is for three credit hours, you should expect to spend a minimum of six hours outside of class each week working on assignments for this course. Visit here for more information regarding general information for courses.

LSU Student Code of Conduct

The LSU student code of conduct explains student rights, excused absences, and what is expected of student behavior. Students are expected to understand this code as described on the Code of Conduct page. Any violations of the LSU student code will be duly reported to the Dean of Students.

Disabilities

Each course syllabus should contain a statement reflecting compliance with The Americans with Disabilities Act and the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, Section 504. This link contains four example statements: Sample Syllabus Statements | LSU Disability Services

Academic Success

The primary ingredients of your academic success are attending class, managing your time efficiently, taking good notes, and developing good critical thinking and communication abilities. LSU has a number of excellent resources that will assist you in developing these skills. The place to begin is the Center for Academic Success \(CAS\). The CAS offers guidance on what learning strategies are best suited to your talents, tutoring in the basic subjects, and workshops on a variety of topics, from note taking to time management. Communication Across the Curriculum assist students in developing the communication skills necessary for academic and professional success. Finally, with respect to professional success, the LSU Olinde Career Center can assist you in choosing a major and a profession that best suits your talents and passions and help you develop a four year career plan to ensure success when you graduate from LSU.

Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Statement

We believe diversity, equity, and inclusion enrich the educational experience of our students, faculty, and staff, and are necessary to prepare all people to thrive personally and professionally in a global society. Therefore, LSU is firmly committed to an environment that affords respect to all members of our community. We will work to eliminate barriers that any members of our community experience.

To make LSU a place where that can happen, we must recognize and reflect on the inglorious aspects of our history. We now acknowledge the need to confront the ways racism, sexism, ableism, ageism, classism, LGBTQ+ phobia, intolerance based on religion or on national origin, and all forms of bias and exploitation have shaped our everyday lives.

We accept personal and professional responsibility to eliminate bias and oppression wherever they are found. We understand our obligation to speak up when we see bias whether it be in our teaching, study, or daily work. Our community will educate themselves proactively and continuously about how to intervene and bring bias to the attention of others with commitment and compassion.

We will hold ourselves accountable for our actions and inactions, and for maintaining intentional, measurable, and meaningful efforts to enhance diversity, equity, and inclusion, including through ongoing evaluation of our policies, practices, and procedures.

Nondiscrimination, Sexual Harassment, & Title IX

LSU provides equal opportunity for all qualified persons in admission to, participation in, or employment in the programs and activities which the university operates without regard to race, creed, color, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, religion, sex, national origin, age, mental or physical disability, or veteran's status. LSU has implemented a procedure to address complaints for those who believe they have been subjected to discrimination and/or harassment in violation of this policy. Please know that your instructors are here to support you and listen to your experience. We also want you to know that we are mandatory reporters and must report what we know to the Office of Civil Rights and Title IX. All LSU employees, with few exceptions, are required to report instances of sex-or gender-based harassment and discrimination, including sexual misconduct and power-based violence (e.g. sexual assault, stalking, dating violence, domestic violence, sexual exploitation, retaliation, etc.) for which they may not be the victim, but of which they are aware. The Office of Civil Rights & Title IX is the LSU office responsible for investigating complaints regarding any type of discrimination, sexual harassment, or power-based violence. The Office of Civil Rights & Title IX is located in 118 Himes Hall and the phone number is 225-578-9000. If you are aware of an individual who has been victimized, you are encouraged to contact the Office of Civil Rights & Title IX or file an online report by going to www.lsu.edu/support and clicking the Report An Incident box.

If you have been assaulted, harassed, or a victim of violence, we encourage you to contact the Office of Civil Rights & Title IX. Please reach out for help immediately. Some excellent resources available to Baton Rouge residents include:

1. STAR (Sexual Trauma Awareness and Response; 24/7 hotline: 1-855-435-STAR,
2. IRIS Domestic Violence Center; 24/7 hotline: 1-800-541-9706
3. THE PHONE Baton Rouge; 24/7 hotline: 225-924-3900
4. The Lighthouse Program; 225-578-5718

For additional information visit www.lsu.edu/civil-rights. LSU's policies on sexual harassment (PM 73) and sexual harassment of students (PS-95) are available on the LSU website.
